

What you need to know about the mainstream news media

A shocking confession was made by Udo Ulfkotte, editor of one of the world's largest newspapers, the Frankfurter Allgemeine Zeitung, which is delivered in 148 countries. He said: "I have been a journalist for 25 years and I was educated to lie, to betray and not to tell the truth to the public. Journalists all over the world are bribed by the CIA, American billionaires, and the government to manipulate the public." Ulfkotte wrote a book called "Journalists for hire. How the CIA buys the news." His confession was confirmed by the journalist Julian Assange, founder of WikiLeaks, who disclosed documents that show how governments are committing incredible crimes against their own people. Assange stated: "Nearly every war that was started the last 50 years has been the result of media lies. The media in general are so bad, we have to question whether the world wouldn't be better without them altogether." CNN technical director Charlie Chester was secretly recorded by an undercover journalist of Project Veritas. He confessed on camera how CNN manipulates the public to vote for the person they want to put in office. He also said that CNN creates fear among its viewers, be it for a pandemic or for climate change. He said: "There's no such thing as unbiased news. Any reporter on CNN is told what to say." America's most popular TV commentator Tucker Carlson stated: "At the most basic level, the news you consume is a lie. A lie of the stealthiest and most insidious kind. Facts have been withheld on purpose, along with proportion and perspective. You are being manipulated." What most people don't know, is that all mainstream news agencies are owned by the same small group of investors. These are multi-billionaires who aim to own all the news, so they can determine what the world believes. Billionaires such as Bill Gates and George Soros "donate" hundreds of millions of dollars to news organizations worldwide, in order to control what they broadcast.

In 2019 a senior software developer at Google, named Zach Vorhies, disclosed over 900 documents that show how Google has an official strategy to hide most information from humanity and only show search results that are in line with the agenda of its owners, the same investors who also own the news. Google has several blacklists of thousands of websites which they hide from humanity. Their documents show how Google wants to "sculpt the information landscape" and "program humanity". The World Economic Forum and World Health Organization, who are also owned by those same financial entities, are calling to censor all information that doesn't follow their narrative. Any research that exposes high level criminal operations agenda, are labeled "conspiracy theories" or "disinformation". Elon Musk, the new CEO of Twitter, disclosed how the CIA and FBI have instructed all social media platforms to silence the voices of thousands of scientists, physicians, and experts.
